

Kelly F. Snook, ASLA Assistant Director

Austin Parks and Recreation Department

Kelly Snook, obtained a Bachelor's of Science in Landscape Architecture from Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas and a Master of City and Regional Planning degree from the University of Texas @ Arlington. Currently, Assistant Director of the Austin Parks and Recreation Department, Snook manages the Operations, Planning, design and Construction Divisions along with the Central Park District which includes that Town Lake and Zilker Parks as well as the Natural Resources oversight. Ms. Snook is also the current President-Elect of the Texas Chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects and will begin her term as the President of the Chapter in September 2010. Kelly enjoys hiking and walking and hopes to see you on Austin's trails soon!